PUBLIC LIBRARY HAS RECORDS FOR LOAN

The Watervliet Public Library recently received two sets of the new "Head Start" records from the office of Economic Opportunity in Washington. The sets have six sides each with experiences of children recorded as they actually happened. As. Mrs. Spencer put it, you will be "shocked to find out how much they can help." These recordings are especially good for teachers to use in learning how the entire family is involved with one child's problems in school.

The Library also purchased a new V-M stero portable record changer, model 331, with the fold down turn table. The Library is offering to the public the use of their new record library including jazz, classical, folk, and show tunes. The records may be taken out for a week at a time and returned to the Library.

A1C Ricky Herndon, son of 1966. During this period, outstanding airmanship and courage were exhibited in the successful accomplishment of important missions under extremely hazardous conditions including the continuous possibility of hostile ground fire. His highly professional efforts contributed materially to the mission of the United States Air Force in Southeast Asia. The professional ability and outstanding aerial accomplishments of Airman Herndon reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.

His father told him he was wasting his time but a few years later young Marconi sold some of his patents to the British government for a quarter of a million dollars and his father was greatly impressed.

"In 1901, Marconi believed that the great dream of his life was about to come true, so he rushed across the Atlantic Ocean, confidently expecting that he would be able to receive messages in America from his sending station in England.

"Landing in Newfoundland, Marconi set up a kite to act as an aerial. He listened-listened four hours, waiting breathlessly for the signals that were supposed to come from his station in Cornwall, England, But none came; there wasn't a sound, Tragically disappointed, be believed that his experiment was a failure, that the great dream of his life had been blasted.

He longed to rush out and shout the news from the housetops, But should he? No. He feared they wouldn't believe him; so for forty-eight hours he shared his secret with no one. Then, gathering courage, he cabled the facts to London. They created a sensation. Newspapers on five continents featured the story; and It set the scientific world seething with excitement.

BERRIEN COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS PROCEEDINGS

JUNE 20, 1966 SESSION

The Berrien County Board of Supervisors met at the Court House in St. Joseph on the above date. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Robert G. Feather at 9:45 A.M.

Reverend Kenneth C. Fenner, pastor of the First Baplist Church of St. Joseph gave the Invocation, Supervisor Herbert Seeder led the Board in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Roll Call showed all members present except Supervisors Blank, Griffin, Kinst and Yaw. Supervisor Carter was absent on roll call but the Clerk read a letter from the Clerk of Coloma Township requesting that Mrs. Emma Clark be seated in Mr. Carter's stead, Mr. Benson moved, supported by Mr. Butcher, that Mrs. Clark be seated in Mr. Carter's place for this meeting. Motion Carried.

The Clerk read the Minutes of the May 16, 1966 meeting and they were approved as read.

Frank Madaski - Resolution of Thanks Mr. Rosenberg presented the following:

For the past six years, Frank Madaski has given his services to Berrien County as its Agricultural Agent. Changes in all phases of agriculture have been rapid and far-reaching. No other industry in our nation has automated as rapidly as the agricultural industry. At the same time, Berrien County is constantly becoming more heavily populated. Thus, the urban element is creating a demand for the already diminishing farmland now in use. This inspired Madaski to concentrate on methods to increase the productivity of every acre of land in use. On the other hand, increased productivity means that a better marketing system must be devised to put the finest quality food into the hands of the consumer at the lowest possible cost,

These problems, and all the other everyday kind of problems, were a real challenge to Frank Madaski. No problem was too large or too small for Frank's careful consideration. He has made his mark on Berrien County. We hope his future efforts in the field of agriculture will be as rewarding to everyone as were his six years here in Berrien County.

Gentlemen, On behalf of the Agriculture Committee of the Berrien County Board of Supervisors, I submit the following resolution for your consideration:

WHEREAS, Frank Madaski has served all segments of the Agriculture Field in Berrien County so well during the past six years,

AND WHEREAS, Frank Madaski has been given a promotion he has so well earned and so rightly deserved by his untiring efforts to all segments of agriculture,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the Berrien County Board of Supervisors, extend a vote of thanks to Frank Madaski for his many accomplishments during his six years as Agriculture Agent for Berrien County, Mich-Igan, and at the same time, wish Frank every success in the future in his new and even more challenging position. Respectfully submitted: THE AGRICULTURE COM-MITTEE

I know many vacationing and weekend boaters use that waterway often, yet I wonder how much they see and enjoy at the high speeds that they usually are going. Along the winding course of river from town to Paw Paw Lake lies sort of a different world. At the leisurely rate which a canoe travels, it is easy to imagine that at any second, from around a bend, will come a long-boat full of redskins or at least a medium-sized paddle-wheeler. On either side, among the dense foliage, aided by the soft hush of murmuring waters, you can distinguish the sounds of gnawing animals, twittering birds and humming insects. On the river itself are little bugs called water skeets that look like a whole flotilla of speed boats in a race. Every once in a while from some place off the bow come the sudden plop! However, it many annuals, besides being esis more common in summer becaus bacteria causing food poisoning need warmth to grow. She noted that bacteria can grow in a 45 degree temperature. However, they grow FASTER with warmer temperatures. Bacteria also need food and moisture to survive.

Handling and storing food safely is the best way to prevent food poisoning, Mrs. Dean stresses Freezing does not sterilize food, she says. "The number of organisms in and on food must be reduced and kept at a minimum before the food is frozen. This means maintaining cleanliness of food and utensils in the kitchen and on vourself." The food should be frozen promptly and prepared and served promptly after thawing, since bacteria will start multiplying again.

The best preparation and packaging won't be effective if the temperature, in the freezer days. Asters have big appetites or compartment rises above 0 and also like a rich sandy alka_ degrees. Many annuals are called hardy annuals, which is misleading as the plants do not live through the winter but the seeds will stand the cold of winter and come up in the spring. Some flower seeds may be sown in the fall for germinating in the early sppring.

Asters and zinnias are two of the most common annuals, although I should add marigolds. Asters have been grown in American gardens for more than 200 years and there are. many kinds on the maket. Some types are best for commercial growers and others are better longer blooming season than pecially good as flowers for cutting for the home.

The tall branching varieties should be set 16 to 18 inches apart and dwarf varieties eight to 10 inches to have sufficient space to develop long stemmed graceful blooms, in nearly every color which will be the delight of any gardener.

Asters need to be planted early in April if you grow your own plants. Of course it is easier to buy plants from your local florist but it is cheaper to plant seeds in boxes indoors or in a cold frame, if available. Seed sown in April should be ready to transplant by mid-May. One year we grew 3,000 aster plants for one grower in our small greenhouse and did well with them.

As the weather warmed, we would carry the flats outside to get more air and sunlight. Seeds sprout in seven to 10 them grow faster.

Asters should be cultivated often but shallow so the roots serve the moisture.

Like all plants, asters have emies and are susceptible to insects and disease. Yellows is a disease which causes the plant to yellow and dry up. The leaf hopper and black beetle are other pests which attack asters, and, if left unchecked will destroy a whole garden.

REV, WALDEN OWEN WILL ANSWER YOUR BIBLE QUESTIONS

Question: Rev. Owen, What is the meaning of II Thessalon ians 2:7?"

The Thessalonian Believers were afraid they had missed the Rapture. They knew that the time of Great Tribulation would not take place until the Lord had called His church to the place of safety in His presence. Because they were undergoing fierce persecution from their fellow townsmen and because they had received a false letter, as though it had come from Paul (II Thess 2:2) indicating that they were in the Day of the Lord, these Christians were quite troubled.

From II Thess 2:3 to 2:12 Paul is speaking prophetically of things which have not yet taken place but which must aboslutely happen before the Day of the Lord, or the Great Tribulation can begin. In verse 3 he says. "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition." He says there are two things that must happen before that day can come. First there must come the "falling away" and then "the man of sin" must be revealed.

Some feel that the "falling away" refers to a great apostasy. The Greek word used here speaks of a "departure." It can mean a departure from the truth which would bring about a great apostasy, but it could also mean a "departure" from the earth as would take place at the Rapture. I believe the latter meaning here is the correct one.

The term "man of sin" deals with a personage who is mentioned several times in prophecy throughout the Bible, (Ezekiel 28:1-10; Daniel 7:7-8, 20-26; 8: 23-25; Revelation 13:1-10;, etc.). This individual will come to the political head of a substantial part of the peoples of the world. Some type of multi-nation federation will be ruled by this political genius. He will bring amazing order out of the existing chaos of the governmental and economic blunders of his day. He will actually declare that he is God, Paul said in II Thess 2:4 "He is the product of all that leads to death, and he sets himself up in opposition to every religion. He himself takes his seat in the temple of God, to show that he really claims to be God" (Phillips translation).

Paul has comforted the Thessalonian Christians by telling them that the Day of the Lord could not possibly come until the Rapture had taken place and the "man of sin" had been revealed. They had not missed the blessed hope of being caught up into the presence of Christ after all.

In verse 6 of II Thess 2, the Apostle introduces another very important truth that fits into the scheme of his discussion. He two-year colleges will open in says, "You will probably also re- September. member how I used to talk about a 'restraining power' 3,200 students will enroll at the which would operate until the time should come for the emergence of this man" (Phillips). In verse 7 he indicates that evil is already at work. This evil cr lawlessness will be epitomized in the "man of sin" but right now there is a restraining force being applied so that it cannot break over its banks. When this restraining power is removed, the lawlessness, which is so obviously growing before our very eyes, will completely inundate the earth. This is a lawlessness which completely repudiates God and the revelation given of Him by means of His ministry in and in the Bible.

Now since the evil spoken of There is coming a time, how-In verse 7 is a supernatural evil, ever, and no one knows how that which restrains or holds soon it will be, when "the Reback this evil must also, of nec- strainer" will be removed, the essity, be supernatural. The Holy church will be raptured, the Spirit is the One who qualifies "man of sin" will be revealed for this ministry (see John 16:7- and the wrath of God, as de-11). Thus the meaning of II picted in the book of the Revela-Thess 2:7 is this: "There is a tion, will judge this world which satanic iniquity permeating the has rebelled against him."

PAT COLMAN WRITES FROM MEXICO CITY

More news has been received from Pat Colman while she is staying in miexico as an exchange student with the Youth For Understanding program of the Council of Churches. The address given last week was incorrect, so for those who would like to write to Pat, here is the correct address:

Patricia Colman

c/o Francisco Trillas Mercader Emilio Castelar 107-402 Mexico 5, D.F., Mexico

than I did at first. We are already planning the last day of school, August 19th. We are going to have a talent show Thursday, August 18th, Friday we're going to spend the whole day at Bahia and have a dance in the evening. It's going to be fun but I sort of wish it would never come. I've met so many nice kids and I'm going to miss them.

Be happy the boat isn't getting much use because when I get home it will probably get "too much" use. You wouldn't believe how water-logged I'm going to get when I come home, I've only been swimming a few times since I got here. Today we went on our tour.

I like school a lot better now We went to Xochimilco which means city of flowers and it is just beautiful. We went down the river on flowered boats. Only twenty-five could fit on a boat so we took four boats. It was fun and I took lots of pictures. We also toured the University. Mom, you wouldn't have believed it if you had seen it. As we walked by the buildings guys were hanging out all the windows waving, whistling and yelling. In the medical building the windows were full of them. When we walked across the soccer court play came to a dead stop. The student asked us where we were from and if would take their pictures because they were real live Indians. It was hilarious

Mrs. Harold Selters Receives Thank You from Eisenhowers

Mrs. Harold Selters was one of the many well-wishers of General and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower recently, congratulating them on their golden wedding anniversary. For her well wishes and the beautiful ceramic piece she sent them Mrs. Selters received a gold engraved card and a message of thanks,

The card read: "Thank you for your message of congratulations on our Golden Wedding Anniversary, General and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower."

In the letter, Mrs. Selters found this:

'Dear Mrs. Selter,

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower were interested to learn that you had made the interesting ceramic ashtray and had made the unusual bread dish which you so generously sent them. They appreciate the time and effort which was required to make the gifts.

The golfing ashtray is very
