Hartford is Class C state baseball champ

By Carla Horton

The Hartford Indians are the 1988 Class C state baseball champions. Coach Howard Hyde's team had a long road to stardom, but it looks like all the work paid off.

The road to success started when the Indians finished their regular season as conference champs with a 12-2 record and an overall record of 22-2. The 'successful road' led Hartford to the Class C semifinal regional HARTFORD STATE CHAMP BASEBALL TEAM MEMBERS...are bottom, left to right: Randy Schonk, Gary light at the intersection, the Indians took control of the road Back row, left to right: Coach Howard Hyde, Chad Johnson, Larry Ryan, Shawn Meachum, Alfonso and beat Vermontville Maple Hartford ended the game in three-hit game for the Indians. Moving down the road into the championship game against Edwardsburg, Hartford had chance to win the first regional championship in the school's Hartford trailed 3-0 until the fourth inning when the Indians rallied and scored eight runs. Hartford moved down that road closer to the championship title when they scored five more runs in the 5th inning to take a 15-3 ead over Edwardsburg. The Eddies scored two more runs, including one on a home run in the game in the championship sixth inning. Even though Hartford had a 12-run advantage over Edwardsburg in the bottom of the 5th, the rules state that a championship game must be played a full seven innings.

The Indians increased their hitting attack to 16 compared to 13 in the semifinals. Hartford's first baseman, Brad Smith. showed the Eddies what he could do when he hit four-forfour in the game. He slugged out three singles and a triple and nocked in two RBI's.

Ackerman had a tremendous day for Hartford. Not only did he score the winning run, but he also slugged out a triple and drove in the first run in the 3rd inning.
